

1. JOB TITLE

Service and Commissioning Engineer

2. REQUIREMENTS

The Service and Commissioning Engineer should fulfil the following requirements:

- Education: Bachelor's degree in Engineering. Knowledge in the following fields will be preferred: Metering/Instrumentation/Ultrasound/Measurements
- Skills: capability of working operationally and strategically, understanding of gas flow metering and ultrasound metering, fluency in MS Office or similar applications
- Personal skills: business oriented, highly motivated, trustworthy with good communication and negotiation skills
- Foreign languages: Bilingual in Spanish

3. RANGE OF DUTIES

This function includes the following duties/tasks, but is not limited to:

3.1 In general

- Servicing our flare gas metering equipment
- Systematic reporting of finalized works
- Seeking opportunities for additional value generation during the service
- Extensive communication with the customer before, during and after the service
- Frequent travel throughout the USA, Mexico, Columbia, and Gulf of Mexico

3.2 Technical/Supply

- Responsibility for existence of necessary technical acknowledgement, technical installation, commission, calibration, maintenance, remote access support, telephone and other electronic support of products
- Sales and marketing of support activities
- Supporting sales activities; making service agreements drafts, spare parts list and offers in general
- Commissioning and installation of Fluenta systems
- Perform work according to HSE Manual and safety instructions